

REEMPLOYMENT

Teachers are recommended for reelection by the Principals to the Superintendent for Board consideration.

Any probationary employee who fails to signify acceptance within 45 consecutive calendar days after notice of election has been given shall be deemed to have declined the employment.

If, without good cause, a permanent employee fails - prior to July 1 - to notify the Board of Trustees of intention to remain in the service of the District during the ensuing school year and if a request to give such notice shall have been served not later than the preceding May 30, the employee may be deemed to have declined employment and services as an employee of the District may be terminated on June 30 of that year.
