

STAFF MEETINGS

The administration may call and conduct staff meetings as necessary to properly conduct district business. Such meetings are considered an important part of the staff's responsibilities, and staff members shall be expected to attend them unless the meeting is designated as optional.