More than 175 students from 15 public and private schools in Ventura County participated in the round robin and individual competition testing their knowledge of global issues including, but not limited to: environment, current events, geology, physical and human geography. The event was in held conjunction with the National Geography Awareness Week activities. The theme this year was: “Travel Adventure: Get out of your box!”. RMHS Geo Bowl team members: Tony Ibarra, Erica Punto, Micha Smith, Kaitlyn Schettler, Jaylin Velasco, Joshua Weinerth and Coach, Kimberly Ma, were recognized for finishing second in this year’s competition.

Outstanding Student – Pacifica HS

Aide “Jacqui Sigala was recognized as the PHS outstanding student. She personifies the character, morality, and work ethic that the PHS staff works to instill in every single Triton. Jacqui has overcome very difficult challenges in her life and has made a firm commitment to being a role model and serving as an inspiration to others. She became independent at a very young age; therefore, she has become a self-starter and an extremely responsible young lady. Jacqui’s true passion in life is music and plays the trumpet and clarinet while participating in the PHS Symphonic and Marching Bands. She plans to pursue a career in the music industry and hopes to one day become a music producer. Jacqui is a stellar student and currently has a 4.26 GPA.

It is the recommendation of the District Administration that the Board of Trustees approve the Renewal of Memorandum of Understanding with Ventura County Community College District for Dual Enrollment Non-CCAP, as presented.

Trustees asked that there be no references to OUHSD hiring of employees for after school classes offered for college credit. Trustees also expressed concern about the possibility of an OUHSD teacher working under the supervision of a VCCCD employee if VCCCD can't find a qualified employee under their contractual obligation. Trustees asked that Dr. McCoy have VCCCD revise the agreement to specifically state that instructors for these courses are VCCCD faculty. Dr. McCoy offered to have Oxnard College further review items 8B, add language referencing that an OUHSD teacher employed by the college can't be paid by the District for the same course(no double dipping), and 9A and 9B, selection of teachers by VCCCD. Trustees expressed their concerns of college teachers being fingerprinted and requested that this take place in the future. Trustees asked Dr. McCoy to compare the hiring process between VCCCD and OUHSD to make sure VCCCD isn't lacking any requirements of OUHSD.

This item was tabled for future consideration; therefore, no action was taken at this time.

14. Staff Report – California Dashboard

Parents, guardians, educators, other stakeholders and the public can use the California School Accountability Dashboard: <https://www.caschooldashboard.org> to see how local educational agencies and schools are performing within California’s school accountability system. The Dashboard provides an overview, with additional detail available, about overall performance and student subgroup performance on multiple measures of student success. The Dashboard also requires each District to upload local indicators that align to state priorities and to present the local indicators in a report to the local governing board. Dr. McCoy presented an overview of the 2019 OUHSD California School Dashboard results.

Dr. McCoy noted that on the indicator for English Language Arts and Math that it’s one indicator, not two, for CAASPP eventhough the District receives a score for English and Math.

Dr. DeLeon gave a shout to the following schools for increase achievements: ELA – HHS, RCHS and RMHS; Math-CIHS, RCHS; EL Progress Indicator – ACHS (57.7 high), FHS, OHS, PHS, RMHS(Medium); College/Career Indicator – ACHS, CHSOA, RCHS; Suspension Rate – CHSOA, RCHS and Graduation Rate – ACHS, CHSOA, FHS, OHS, RCHS
